Gentlemen:

Confirming my telephone conversation this date with a representative of your Mail Order Department, relative to the purchase of a quantity (6) of your #526 Deer Hunting Knife, or Sheath Knife as I believe you call it, there is enclosed herewith my check in the amount of $84.00, representing 6 such knives at $14.00 each ($17.50 retail, less 20%).

These items are not for resale, but for use by a small group of private sportsman-hunters with whom I am informally associated. We have found this particular knife to be the most practical one on the market for boning and skinning of game.

I would appreciate it if you were to expedite shipment of these items to the above address, prepaid shipping charges, per my understanding with your representative.

Sincerely yours,

FOIAb3b
